HISTORY

Since its founding in 1996, AFRAM has played a significant role in providing education and leadership development experience for people of African descent. AFRAM has consistently reminded our Union that our leadership should reflect the membership. We believe that diversity is not a slogan, but a strategy based on sound moral principles for living in the world community, especially in the 21st century.

As leaders, African Americans must redouble our efforts to increase our contributions socially, politically, educationally and economically to improve the quality of life for ourselves and all Americans. We must encourage each other to “Rise to the Challenge of Leadership.”

MISSION STATEMENT

The National African American Caucus of the Service Employees International Union (SEIU) is committed to enhancing opportunities for education, training mentorship, leadership development and networking for SEIU members and staff of African descent.

We further engage to promote social, economic and political justice within our workplace, our communities, our nation and within our union.

We shall further encourage our members to actively engage in efforts to organize the unorganized and to fully participate in the development and implementation of labor’s political agenda and programs.
